What's new at iDance Project this month?

Important Information for November:

Updated Studio Covid-19 Policy

The lobby will be closed to all adults and spectators. We will be making an exception for our Tiny Tot classes for ages 2-3. Masks are required for dancers ages 7 and up - masks are optional for dancers 6 and under. Practice social distancing whenever possible. Wash hands before and after class - sanitizer will be available during classes. Drinking fountains will remain closed - bring water bottles marked with your dancer's first and last name. If you are feeling unwell, showing symptoms of Covid-19 or anyone in your house is being tested, please stay home. Thank you for your cooperation!

Make Up Classes for Quarantined Dancers

If your dancer has had to miss class due to quarantine, please send us an email and we will give you a list of available make up classes for your dancer.

Thanksgiving Break is November 24th - 28th!

The studio will be closed for Thanksgiving Break from Tuesday, November 24th through Saturday, November 28th. We will still have classes on Monday, November 23rd - this is to make up for Monday, December 21st!

Have a safe and Happy Thanksgiving!

Banana Split Party Postponed - New Date TBA!

We will be postponing our Banana Split Party - new date to be announced later this year. This is for dancers who have all 3 of their splits down (Right leg, Left leg & straddles) and is by invitation only!

IDP Staff Spotlight

Nate Sramek - Associate Director

Nate has been dancing for the past 25 years. He has been trained in Ballet, Jazz, Tap, Musical Theatre, Clogging, Hip Hop, Ballroom, Lyrical, and Acrobatics. He has taught for several different dance studios located in Omaha and Kansas City throughout his career. Nate is an award winning choreographer for his clogging routines. He has worked for dance competitions in the past and is currently judging for dance competitions on the weekends. Nate has recently received his certification in Acrobatic Arts. He is excited to share his knowledge of dance with the students at iDance Project!
